

WASHINGTONIAN GIFT GUIDE

FRIENDSHIP HEIGHTS

FOOD LOVER

His iPhone is filled with restaurant and cooking apps. He's eaten at every burger joint in town at least twice. He'll take designer cookware over designer clothing any day. Here are gifts that feed a gourmet's passion.

- 1. Smooth Sips
 Nespresso & DeLonghi Lattissima Plus coffee/cappuccino maker, $399 in assorted colors at Sur la Table stores and surlatable.com.
- 2. Setting the Table
 Heathered-linen napkins, $48 for a set of four at emersonmade.com.
- 3. Good Eats
 Unusual house-made pickled delicacies, at Seasonal Pantry (1314 1/2 Ninth St., NW; 617-733-9867). Prices vary.
- 4. Fun With Cocktails
An Illustrated Guide to Cocktails, with recipes and cocktail history, $19.99 at the Phillips Collection shop (1600 21st St., NW; 202-387-2151).
- 5. Taste of New York
 For fromage fans: cheese-of-the-month membership, from $275 for four months at murrayscheese.com.
- 6. Stick a Fork in It
 Vintage-fork cheese markers, $45 for a set of six at beachhouseliving.etsy.com.
- 7. Colorful Cookware
 Staub La Mer cast-iron 2 1/2-quart cocotte, $100 at Sur la Table stores and surlatable.com.
- 8. Cutting Edge
 The OCD Chef cutting board, ruled for precise slices, $26.50 at Wake Up Little Suzie (3409 Connecticut Ave., NW; 202-244-0700).
- 9. Sharp Slice
 Beautifully crafted Togiharu seven-inch hammered-texture Santoku knife, $132 at korin.com.